JANE BEILES

Christina S. Roughan of Roughan Interiors (ROWAN) is an award-winning designer who believes her clients' homes should reflect their personal style. Roughan is known for her curated approach to modern/traditional design that creates the ultimate livable interior. Her 20 years of experience allow her to offer a luxurious and refined product that translates to apartments, vacation homes, condominiums, and primary and secondary residences around the world. Roughan is a full-service design firm with locations in Connecticut and New York City. Christina has been featured in shelter magazines such as Connecticut Cottages & Gardens, New England Home, House Beautiful, and Elle Decor, just to name a few. She has received four awards from the Andrew Martin International Design Review for excellence in interior design. Some exciting current projects are a full gut renovation on Central Park West, a Georgian estate in New Canaan, Connecticut, and a Greenwich, Connecticut, colonial.
