"Cozy, for me,
is very tactile.
It's about the way things feel
to the touch."

SEND US A PICTURE OF...

Every man wants his man cave... a place to retreat and be alone. (It's a Men Are From Mars thing.) Nine designers let us sneak a look at their spouse's refuges

Interviews by SARAH ROGLER

"Thomas really wanted a gentlemanly 'club' space of his own, but our apartment isn't big enough. So I created a 'man corner' for him. He adores it, and sadly, I sometimes can't get him out of it. It's a great place to work on his computer, watch Star Trek, read The Wall Street Journal, or play his bass guitar. The furniture is simple and masculine. The Jean-Michel Frank-inspired chair is comfortable enough for him, and chic enough for me. It certainly beats the popo son chair he used to have."
