fun decorating

new black

BY VALSPAR

"I'm always eager to paint walls black for clients, but no one has wanted to take the leap...yet. So I went for it in my own home office. The key is the high-gloss finish, which is not only glamorous but also gives the paint a reflective quality, so light bounces off it."

—Jennifer Wagner Schmidt,
JWS Interiors, Ashburn, VA

razzle dazzle

BY BENJAMIN MOORE

"Bubble gum pink brings back happy memories of childhood, but the hints of purple make it sophisticated. This built-in bookcase in a teen girl's bedroom would be a snooze without it."

—Christina Sullivan Roughan, Roughan Interior Design, Weston, CT

adobe orange

BY BENJAMIN MOORE

"In order to inspire my family to use our dining room for more than special occasions, I painted the walls this preppy red orange pulled from the chair fabric. White wainscoting minimizes the bold color, so the room doesn't feel too electric. Now we eat here almost every night."

—Jayme Kennerknecht, Kennerknecht
Design Group, Wenham, MA
